SAGINAW GENEALOGY SOCIETY

- is celebrating its 40th Anniversary at the Hoyt Public Library's auditorium room on Janes Avenue in Saginaw. The evening will start at 6:30 p.m. with a short meeting and at 7 p.m. a program will be presented by Historian Anna May Maday. She will tell us about the early members and history of the organization. She has kept notebooks that commemorating the organization as Historian. She is requesting information from anyone who has articles or obits on members over the last 5 to 10 years to help complete or update her notebooks. Send them to: Saginaw Genealogy Society, P.O. Box 3767, Saginaw, MI 48605. Please join us and celebrate with us and anything you might remember of past meetings and people.

PREAMBLE TO ORIGINAL CONSTITUTION

Believing that Genealogy is fun, mentally stimulating and intellectually rewarding, and that the bare bones of fact are best covered with the clothing of biography, we the members at this Society are determined to achieve the enjoyable balance of names, dates and places with complete knowledge of the individuals known in our genealogies.

OBJECTIVE

The Purpose of the Saginaw Genealogical Society is to promote the collection, preservation and publishing of genealogical, biographical and local historical material relating to American families and places, to promote the knowledgeable use of the Saginaw Public Library and to hold meetings for the instructional pleasure of its members.
